The image shows a musical score for a ride cymbal and snare drum. The ride cymbal part consists of vertical strokes on a staff with a '3' time signature box. The snare drum part includes a 'Snare Click' on the first beat, bass drum strokes ('BD') on the second and fourth beats, and a 'Snare Click' on the eighth beat. The dynamic marking 'mp' is present.

A musical score for page 52 featuring a single staff. The staff begins with a double bar line followed by a repeat sign. It contains several measures of music with various note heads and stems. Some notes have vertical lines extending upwards or downwards from them. There are also some horizontal bars above the notes. The staff ends with another double bar line.

Drum stick notation for a crash cymbal pattern. The pattern consists of two measures. Measure 1 starts with a vertical stroke (Crash) at tempo 60. It then continues with a series of sixteenth-note patterns: a vertical stroke followed by a diagonal stroke, a vertical stroke followed by a diagonal stroke, a vertical stroke followed by a vertical stroke, a vertical stroke followed by a diagonal stroke, a vertical stroke followed by a vertical stroke, and a vertical stroke followed by a diagonal stroke. Measure 2 begins with a vertical stroke followed by a diagonal stroke. It then continues with a series of sixteenth-note patterns: a vertical stroke followed by a diagonal stroke, a vertical stroke followed by a vertical stroke, a vertical stroke followed by a diagonal stroke, a vertical stroke followed by a vertical stroke, and a vertical stroke followed by a diagonal stroke. The measure ends with a vertical stroke followed by a diagonal stroke.

A musical score for a single melodic line. The score begins with a dynamic marking f and the instruction "normal". The tempo is indicated as 64. The music consists of a series of vertical stems with crossheads, grouped into measures by vertical bar lines. Some stems have horizontal dashes or bars above them, indicating specific attack or decay techniques. The stems are primarily black, with one notable white stem appearing in the middle of the page. The score ends with a long horizontal line and a short vertical line.
